Note. Circulars must be black and white and not require any design or typesetting work. Circulars must be totally “Scanner Ready” —

- You save Time and Money when you have your circulars published online. They can be seen 24/7, even while your are sleeping. Visitors can print out your circular and order from you right then and there. This saves everybody time and money.

Print media, such as promoting with small space ads — and the Internet , such as having your circular online, should be worked together. Your advertising system, when working small ads in print media and circulars on the Internet TOGETHER, can easily increase your results 300 percent — even more.

The main reason some dealers fail using the Internet is because they did not know how to use it. Now there is no excuse for you to not use it effectively...just I do, just as I have done for years. The Internet is not only cost effective, it is so much faster and easier for your prospective customers to order from. FREE BONUS! Your circular also displayed from TEN additional mail order sites!

Don't Miss Out On This — the price is certainly right! Order NOW!
